Chadron State College 2011 Summer Volleyball Camp

The Camp Staff

Natasha Marquis

Chadron State College Head Volleyball Coach

Natasha Marquis, who has been a graduate assistant at the University of Nebraska-Kearney the past three seasons, was hired as the new head volleyball coach for Chadron State in February.

Coach Marquis joined the UNK staff in the summer of 2008 and she helped guide the Lopers to three consecutive Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference championships. The Lopers also qualified for the NCAA Division II playoffs three times and had a cumulative record of 96-12, including a 54-2 mark in the RMAC. In 2010, UNK advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Division II National Championship and ended the season ranked fifth in the final American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. She is hoping her accomplishments as an assistant translate to success at Chadron State.

In addition to her coaching duties at UNK, Coach Marquis was the head coach for the Nebraska Gold club team and was an assistant director and coach for the Lopers' summer volleyball camps.

She had a solid collegiate career as a right side and middle hitter at Division I Albany (N.Y.) for two years after playing two seasons at Butte College in California. For the Albany Great Danes, she was part of a program that won 44 matches in 2006 and 2007. At Butte, she hit .319 and averaged 2.44 kills per game as a sophomore, helping the Roadrunners win a second straight Golden Valley Conference title.

Tommy Fleming

Fleming graduated from Western State in 2009 with a bachelor of arts in recreation. In addition to his coaching experience, he played two years as a middle blocker for the Southern Storm Boys Volleyball Club from 2001-03 and he helped lead that squad to two regional tournament junior national championship matches.
