Chadron State College campus housing offers a convenient environment where residents have the opportunity to meet, study and interact with other students.

Features you will enjoy while living in the residence halls:
- Computer connections in each room (sign up when you arrive)
- Comfortable lounges where you can relax, study watch TV or socialize
- Laundry facilities

No meal plans required during summer sessions! The campus dining services may be available as posted in the Student Center during the month of June. Pay as you go!

Alternate Shower Site: During the month of May, the hot water is turned off in certain buildings for an annual health and safety inspection by the State. Accommodations will be made to shower at an alternate site on campus if necessary if you will be affected by this. Please inquire at check-in.

Summer 2012 students will be housed in Edna Work Wing.
