It's true. Business majors succeed at both Western Nebraska Community College and Chadron State College. We want you to make your own success story by beginning at WNCC and finishing at CSC.

Western Nebraska Community College is a student-centered, open access institution primarily devoted to quality instruction and public service, providing counseling and other student services intended to promote the success of its diverse student population.

Chadron State College, which was founded in 1911, is the only four-year, regionally-accredited college in the western half of Nebraska. More than 3,000 undergraduate, graduate and online students currently attend Chadron State as it remains a college of access and affordability.

*I transferred from WNCC to Chadron because it was very convenient and easy to transfer all my credits. I was very welcomed by the International Office and also the international students. Chadron State College has a great program for business administration majors. I did my research before attending CSC and the results were exciting because CSC was my first choice. I am happy to be part of the program and the rate for tuition is very good."
