SYSTEM DIRECTOR FOR TITLE IX

The Nebraska State College System (NSCS) seeks a System Director for Title IX to work with Chadron, Peru and Wayne State Colleges to provide leadership, training, oversight and coordination of all matters pertaining to Title IX.

The System Director for Title IX will have primary responsibility for managing Title IX compliance obligations. This position will work closely with College Title IX officers, administration, faculty, staff and students to establish and implement comprehensive system wide and College compliance programs by developing initiatives, conducting training, and coordinating awareness of gender equity and sexual harassment, assault, violence, and creating sexual misconduct policies and related procedures (e.g. VAWA, Clery, Campus SaVE Act). This position is responsible for monitoring emerging regulatory obligations and developing plans of action for remaining in compliance with Title IX.

This position requires a Bachelor’s degree. J.D. and/or Master’s degree and previous experience in Title IX compliance, higher education or a related field is strongly preferred.

This position requires excellent communication and time management skills, and knowledge of and experience with issues related to Title IX. Excellent judgment and a professional demeanor with the ability to work with internal and external parties with diplomacy and understanding is essential. Individual must possess the ability to recommend and/or effect changes to policies, to revise practices and to implement equitable procedures across the Colleges and System Office.

Work requires knowledge of current state and federal law and regulations, with an emphasis on Federal and state discrimination law; System and College specific policies, practices and procedures; and best practices and trends in higher education related to harassment and other discriminatory practices that violate Title IX.

The position reports to the Director of System Wide Risk Management and Compliance and will require extensive in-state travel. Additional travel to conferences and training will also be necessary. The primary office location is Lincoln, Nebraska. Estimated salary is $65,000 to $75,000, based on qualifications. The NSCS also offers an excellent comprehensive benefit package.

Review of applications will begin on August 1, 2016, thus early application is encouraged. Applications, including cover letter and resume, should be mailed to:
